

Commitment and Freedom

by Anna Maria Costa Ribeiro

(yes, with some runic comparisons because they're coming back in full force and we shall salute them)

Freedom is harder than commitment.
Why? Well, what would you do with all the freedom?
You know what commitment is (don't you?).
However, what do you know about freedom?
Commitment is easy, whether in relationships, work, etc.
Freedom, however, urges you to be real.
The naked truth of ALL the Planets of your Natal Chart (NC).

Swearing loyalty to the authenticity of your Sun is not enough.
You need to be truthful with ALL of them, Tutti.
The hardest planet on your NC is called Venus. Saturn was never it.

Truth be told: people do not know how to interact or relate to one another. They weren't taught how to.
What does that cause? Problems in your relationships, family, career, health. Say hello wars...
The source of the problem is:
Disharmony. Eris.

Saturn is an excellent planet:
The Materializer.

Saturn will concretize your interests, depending on its position on your NC.

If you have problems with your Saturn surely it's because he hasn't materialized your wishes or, if he did, he didn't give you what you wished for.

Saturn holds the sickle.

The sickle symbolizes getting rid of a problem so that something new may grow.

Kronos does not scare you.

Venus-Aphrodite is the one that sends shivers down your spine!

Venus with her desire to be loved and of material comfort.

She is also Freya, the Nordic goddess of material fertility and magic. The one who wears Brísingamen, the magnificent necklace, or Aurora Borealis, to show off her beauty and power of possessing and getting whatever it is she wants and desires. The symbol of prosperity, represented by the first rune Fehu, to indicate that the works have begun through the evocations of Well Being and Prosperity.

Corruption is love's substitute. You will never be corrupted if you love truly and are loved in return.

Because you have the Great Fortune already.

Freedom, an endorsement to BE who you are, that is Uranus.
Uranus, God the Creator.

To create and let go of your masterpiece so that it may roam freely and outlive its creator.

Frey – the god of sexual prowess - also shared the same thought.

There is no sexual prowess without freedom.

That is represented by the rune Ingwaz, the seed. The seed of Uranus. The one that arises, seeds and moves along.

The 21st century urges you to break boundaries and transcend your limits, the Age of Aquarius, Age of Uranus. You will witness a violation in nearly everything. Because everything will be different. If you are capable of foreseeing, you will be able to predict. And if you predict, you will invest or watch out for yourself.

An entirely different strategy will be needed.

Just like taking a walk over electric waves: they are pointy, not round, and may break your paradigms.

Seek the New, with awe and terror.
If you gaze at the world today that is what you will see:
Awe and terror.

You have two masks:

1. Your daily mask known as the ASC
2. Your visible mask worn at key moments and turning points known as the MC

You have been trained since your childhood to wear the MC's social mask and have been pressured since then by the MC's ruling planet.

Then, one day Uranus shows up.
His role is to go against the norm.

Prosperity reigns if you go against the norm. Abundance will overflow if gifted with the freedom to create, just as Frey.

Rules will be broken where you have Uranus in your NC.

Worry not, Saturn will not be upset at all; after all, he was a pioneer rule breaker since he conspired with this mother, Gaia, to castrate his father.

Poor Venus is the distressed one.

Care to know why?

Well, if you don't feel welcome and accepted, Venus will become outraged and unbearable, as she did with Psyche.

However, if you feel accepted, welcomed like the flowers come spring and with wild animals at your feet – as Venus felt when she promenaded; if you toss out your issues - why do you have them anyways? – then, my dear, New Things, New Rules, will be no problem at all.

After all, Venus is Uranus' daughter. Eccentricity does not bother her at all. And if she's at a conventional sign, it will taste like something new, even if it's just an outfit or a new shoe.

Uranus brings forth progress, such as mobile phones, Android or iPhone, it doesn't matter.

Saturn will make progress a rule.

The foundation of any novelty is initially perceived with criticism, distrust, misinformation, and opposition. The plot repeats itself with all pioneers and inventors. People are bothered by creativity and the Creatives free-thinking mind.

Keep in mind: Uranus and Saturn rule Aquarius.

First comes Uranus with his insane creative liberty.

Then comes Saturn to record everything that was created.

Paradigms are broken where you have Uranus on your NC. Paradigm, an intolerable word for Uranus.

Where you have Saturn on your NC, there will be rules and commercial benefits for all. Saturn enjoys a profitable business. The rune Othala is Saturn's friend. She represents property, agriculture. Note that Frey is also a goddess of the earth's riches. No wonder Uranus and Saturn can be friends after a tug of war. Saturn has had the experience of being cheated by his wife, Rhea; and Uranus was cheated by his partner, Gaia. Therefore, like father, like son.

Anyways, you'll lose if you don't change and up your game. Especially in the Age of Aquarius, where intelligence will be stretched like a rope, as far as it'll be able to withstand.

To deny access to intelligence is to willingly deny progress. That's why Education will be in vogue in this Age of Aquarius.

Saturn, son of Uranus, contemplates the future. That is obvious: if he dethroned his father, who will he be dethroned by?

Saturn is farsighted. He looks ahead. If you want to climb a mountain you must look up. And to the sides. Saturn has total control.

Where you have Saturn on your NC you must think about the future.

Ambition = future.

Without ambition there is no future.

Do you still think Saturn seeks stability?

The only stability he wants is to keep ascending in total command.

The stability of tranquility or retirement does not interest him.

Kronos never retired.

Even imprisoned in the Hades, during the war with the Titans, he seized the opportunity, as did Mandela, to study, learn, take notes, upgrade, and so forth.

Saturn is never ever satisfied.

He chugged away all of his children. Stuffed himself happy, as witnessed by his big belly. Study myths.

They convey extremely interesting codes. For one thing, he wasn't able to swallow Jupiter, lucky fellow.

Saturn has never been a slow poke. He is totally misinterpreted, or negatively criticized – and the World is tarnished with negativity.

Saturn is a builder.

And you don't build a hotel in Dubai in 2 minutes.

Uranus is the Creator.

Gaia is the Caretaker.

That's Parenthood.

In other words: the act of creating and protecting, of acting like mom and dad.

Commitment is having focus.

If you lack focus, you cannot commit.

Because commitment urges the continuity of something.

To continue climbing, actualizing.

Freedom is knowing how to sever ties with what obstructs and clouds your path.

What you need is in your NC.

There are no rewards outside of your NC: it's vital, it's your chip.

There are 8 billion chips out there and you still wonder if Astrology will come to an end?! Never! At least 50% of the 8 billion people out there will be interested in getting to know their NC when they realize that it's serious business.

To know Astrology is to decode chips.

You NC is your future.

Love it, don't quit on it.

No transit will EVER bring you what is not on your NC.

If suffering an accident is not your Destiny, a transit in Mars will never cause you an accident, although you may witness one. Or scrape your leg, something quite common.

There is NOTHING on your NC to be changed or improved, lesser yet to be avoided.

Dare not challenge that. It would be Hybris, arrogance.

And, therefore, would attract Nemesis, just vengeance.

Your NC is a map. Follow its trail.

Obey it.
